

Parents Support Group 14th November 2017 Synopsis.

Workshop e-Safety

- 15 parents attended the session and one governor.
- Analysis from feedback as follows;
- 14 feedback questionnaires completed.

Did you find the session useful?

- All 14 stated they found the session useful and made the following comments;
- Quite informative.
- I preferred the first half which focused more on e-safety.
- Yes very much.
- It was good to listen to advice regarding my year 6 son and for my year 9 daughter with autism. The internet information.
- Very helpful

What aspects of the session did you find useful?

- Computing information and anti-bullying measures.
- Games that can be hacked in to on a child's computer or phone.
- Bullying and internet.
- Bullying.
- All the information.
- Learning about the carbon footprints and the extent it goes to.
- The internet.
- Age ranges and advice on PC issues.
- To look for signs of bullying and how to handle it from home.
- Keeping up to date with social media.
- How much information and tracking.
- The first half about how cookies store all information about previous websites you visit.

Will you attend further parenting support groups?

- All indicated they would attend further parenting groups.
- I try my best to attend all groups I feel will be helpful to my family.
- I think changes are happening all the time and we need to be aware. I will always try to attend any support group.

- Yes for new issues.

Was the time convenient to you?

- They all indicated the time was convenient.
- No problem.
- Perfect, just before staying for lunch with my son.

Will you use any of the resources/recommendations at home?

- Putting location to 'off' on children's tablets or checking they are off.
- To take off what people can hack into so to block it off.

Any Other Comments

- YouTube for kids is designed to be child friendly.
- Kids YouTube.
- Would be good to explore more ideas for SEN children who can't communicate bullying but may still feel bullying in the playground.
- Very good information. Very informative.
- Session was very informative and nice to meet with other parents.
- Thank you to all the staff.

Miss Exelby
Senior Learning Mentor.
14/11/2017.