Analysis from Feedback as follows:

Did you find the session useful?

- All 10 stated they found the session useful and made the following comments;
- I found the sessions useful for different strategies and the presentations help us all. Thank you for your continued support.
- As always. Being here helps to get to know parents with children with learning difficulties.
- It is very interesting to explore behaviours and why they're happening; makes you think of what's happening at home.
- Very good, super people.
- Delivered well. Good group of people.
- The session was brilliant. All the parents gelled together.
- Very interesting to learn other parents' views and behaviour issues and how they deal with it. Very useful.

What aspects of the session did you find useful?

- The pupil support profile is very interesting and something I'll look into using.
- Learning behaviour for future use.
- Meeting parents and discussing ideas and strategies.
- All of the aspects discussed were relevant to all of us.
- Strategies for dealing with certain behaviours.
- Table discussion around behaviours, other parents' views and their worries.
- One of parents' advice was to ask for reading a line a week before we go to Sunday school.
- Very helpful information

Will you attend further parenting support groups?

- All stated they would attend further sessions.
- We learn from each other.
- Yes there's always something different. How to help and support our children with learning difficulties.
- Love meeting other parents and find the groups very useful.

Was the time convenient?

- All stated the time was convenient.
- Just might be able to get here.
- Very much.
- Yes because traffic was not busy. Tuesday is a good day.

Will you use any of the resources/recommendations at home?

- We will keep trying different strategies to help us to develop his independence.
- I will look into why my child is doing this behaviour and how I can help stop it in the future.
- Yes to look at the triggers.
- Yes.
- Lots of things we can use at home.

Any Other Comments

- A termly parents coffee morning.
- Really liked today. Lots of interaction with Mr Christian and Miss Exelby, and the other parents. This is what we need as parents to be able to talk to other parents.
- Will be using a visual timer at home.
- I have been very happy after parent support, parents having input into the group.
- A couple of requests from parents for strategies and support regarding specific behaviour.
- We would like more support/strategies for our child's reading. Doing really well at this school and hope it will continue for us all.
